Read the text below and answer the questions no. 1-5:

Once a Lion was asleep and a little Mouse began running up and down him. This soon woke the Lion, who placed his huge paw on the Mouse, and opened his big jaws ready to swallow him. "Pardon, O King," cried the little Mouse, "forgive me this time and I shall never forget it. Who knows what I may be able to do for you one of these days?" The Lion was so tickled at the idea of the Mouse being able to help him that he lifted up his paw and let him go. Some time later, the Lion was caught in a trap. The hunters, who desired to carry him alive to the King, tied him to a tree while they went in search of a wagon to carry him on. Just then the little Mouse happened to pass by. Seeing the unpleasant condition in which the Lion was, he went up to him and gnawed away the ropes that bound the King of the Beasts. "Was I not right?" said the little Mouse. Little friends may prove great friends.
